<sup>2</sup> A separate template needs to be presented for each project and program preparation grant request

<sup>3</sup> If the MDB cost estimate exceeds the relevant benchmark, it needs to be supported by (i) a breakdown of costs of inputs required (staff/consultant time, travel, number of missions, etc.) and (ii) by an explanation of the particular aspects of project design and implementation that drive MDB costs to exceed the benchmark.

<sup>4</sup> Other local, national and international partners to be involved in implementation of the project.
