¹ The term “project implementation services” refers to MDB support throughout project life-cycle.

² A separate template needs to be presented for each project and program preparation grant request

³ If the MDB cost estimate exceeds the relevant benchmark, it needs to be supported by (i) a breakdown of costs of inputs required (staff/consultant time, travel, number of missions, etc.) and (ii) by an explanation of the particular aspects of project design and implementation that drive MDB costs to exceed the benchmark.

⁴ Other local, national and international partners to be involved in implementation of the project.
