Additional Notes
Gang violence gripped the country in 2022 following the assassination of then president Jovenel Moïse, and conditions have continued to deteriorate while violent gangs have thrived in the country. Haiti's president, Aïrel Henry, resigned in 2024 and as of April, a transitional government was announced, but installing the

new council at the National Palace will be extremely challenging and risky as gangs continue to surround the building. The SREP Technical Committee should gain comfort that this project will not be affected by the ongoing turmoil in Haiti.
